The Fireman's Jubilee!

Silver Wedding of the Young Americas—Their 25th Anniversary.

In accordance with an annual custom, the Young Americas celebrated their Anniversary on last Friday with a parade and appropriate festivities. They were escorted by the Elliotts on the parade, and the two companies presented a fine appearance on our streets. The engine and truck were both beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens, showing the care and interest of the ladies in our young and public spirited Fire Department. With the silver bells, the beautiful flowers, the mingling of the red and white, and above all the smiles of lovely woman, our town presented for the time a scene of festive gaiety.

After the parade the Young Americas met in their Hall and elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year:

President—E. S. Hubble.
Vice-President—E. S. Dibble.
Treasurer—J. M. Brunson.
Secretary—T. O. S. Dibble.
1st. Director—R. H. Wiles.
2d. Director—Henry Kohn.
3rd. Director—J. G. Boliver.
Ath. Director—A. Garner.
Solicitor—Gen. J. F. Izlar.
Sergeant—A. C. Dukes.
Azmen—J. J. Street, John Robin son.

The business being over the company with their escort the Elliott boys and other invited guests, proceeded in a body to the Elliott Hall where the Committee of the Young Americas apparently recognizing the importance of a Silver Wedding had prepared one of the best suppers that the Firemen have ever enjoyed in our Burg.

On entering the Hall the dazzling appearance of the table attracted every one, and here too what the eyes plainly testified, the inquiry corroborated that woman's fairy touch was not absent.

The large gathering having been seated, Rev. J. F. Elzer invoked the blessing.

The guests were then splendidly waited upon by the attentive Committee and no one rose from the table unsatisfied.

The substantial being over the glasses were filled, and with the flaming and sparkling beer came equally sparkling wit and humor.

The feast of reason and flow of humor was commenced by the reading of the Roster prepared by F. S. Dibble Esq., which elicited loud applause and merriment as the points came out. It was well read, and coming first put every body in jovial mood.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.
Was the first toast, which was responded to by Hon. S. Dibble in his usual pleasant style, giving the entertainment a good send off.

OUR WORTHY CHIEF.
Brought to his feet Chief Harpin Riggs who after a few practical and timely remarks introduced his friend Mr. Tozer of Columbia who offered an appropriate sentiment which was well received.

THE ELLIOTTS.
Was responded to by Foreman L. H. Wauwamaker in a letter (sickness preventing his attendance,) concluding with the following sentiment:

THE I. Y. A. F. F. CO.—
Composed of men of pluck and speed, Always on hand in time of need; If but encouraged in their fight For efficiency—which is their right, Will at a day that's soon to come, Throw some protection round our home.

A round of applause greeted the sentiment.

OUR HONORABLE MAYOR.
On the programme Dr. A. S. Hydrick, being absent, the robes of office were placed upon Mr. Loryea who wore them well, concluding with a sparkling sentiment on woman which is always well received.

OUR DEPARTED FIREMEN.
Was responded to standing and in silence.

OUR SILVER WEDDING.
Brought out Hon. Samuel Dibble again who evidently began to think that he was crowded.

OUR GUESTS.
Was responded to by Rev. Lawrence who was loudly called for, and who enlivened the occasion with a capital speech which brought rounds of applause and laughter. His remarks were eloquent, and speaking as a representative of the North before a Southern audience, his patriotic sentiments were heartily endorsed.

WOMAN
Received the gallant and courteous attention of Prof. Jas. H. LaRoche, who handled his theme with all the chastity and tenderness so pre-eminently deserving. It is pleasing on these occasions to see the young men of the community brought out, and Mr. LaRoche's speech was particularly well received.

OUR CITY.
Was represented by Dr. Malone who rose in obedience to calls, but begged to be excused from any extended remarks.

Mr. A. B. Walker was then loudly called upon who kept the boys in an uproar in his characteristic style during his whole speech.

THE BENCH AND BAR.
Finding no representative of the legal fraternity present, Mr. August Fischer was loudly called for who responded briefly and with an appropriate sentiment.

WADE HAMPTON.
Elicited an excellent speech from Mr. F. A. Schifley who touched a responsive chord in the audience whenever he portrayed the virtues and good deeds of Carolinas regenerator.

THE PRESS.
Fell to the lot of the editor of the TIMES who endeavored in his feeble way to hold aloft the banner of free speech, and in conclusion responded to the generous sentiments of Prof. Lawrence toward the South, and extended the hearty welcome and good will of the people of Orangeburg to all regardless of section or nationality who come here in the spirit of friendship to make a home amongst us, and as fellow-citizens to unite with us in promoting our material prosperity. The evening passed most delightfully, and the good humored assembly slowly and regretfully dispersed amid the inspiring strains of "The Sweet Bye and Bye" which still lingers in their memory.

Northern Men in Greenville.

A Convention of Northern men was held in Greenville last Saturday, and resolutions were adopted unanimously endorsing the Piedmont section as a suitable place to live, and proclaiming the hospitality of the South to all immigrants who come with good intentions to seek homes as liberal in the extreme.

The resolutions were signed by representatives of all sections of the North, and their friends were urged to settle amongst us.

Child's Play.

The scene in the Senate of the United States last week was a disgrace to the country. Two gray-headed Senators got in a rage and indulged in a quarrel which is hardly expected anywhere except among school boys for which they would be taken up and well flogged.

Conkling of New York called Gen. Burnside of Rhode Island "a meddling old woman" and uses other epithets by no means complimentary; and the latter retorts by applying the terms "prevaricator" "teller of untruths" &c.

Friends rallied around to prevent a collision, but they were unnecessarily alarmed for where there is so much bluster there is seldom sound anything else.

Bayonet Rule.

A bill came before the Senate last week to prevent the use of bayonets at the polls in future National elections. The Republican Senators voted strongly and solidly against the bill. This proves conclusively that the drift of the Republican party is to control the ballot in the future as in the past by the bayonet.

It would seem that the fact that this action cannot be permanent, and that soon the Democratic party will have a majority in both Houses would have dictated a wiser policy. But such is not the case. The love of plunder and the greed of gain, blinds the eyes of the Republicans to true policy. As soon as the Democrats get control, which will be before the next Presidential election, the bayonet will be removed from the polls, and yet the Republicans have now put themselves on record as the champions of the bayonet, and so place themselves before the country.

Washington's Birth Day.

Washington's Birth Day was celebrated in Charleston with the usual pomp and gayety.

The military turned out en masse and companies and guests from the upper part of the State patriotically joined in the celebration.

Gov. Simpson was present, and Superintendent of Education Thompson delivered the oration before the W. L. T's. Collations and banquets were given in all parts of the city and speech and sentiment gave life to the entertainments.

Several of our citizens went down and participated in the joys of the occasion, and in rendering honor to "the father of our country."
